Whether you're a small to medium size business looking for tools to get started, a digital marketing agency working with various clients, or a marketing professional with an interest in learning a new platform, Mailchimp Meetups are the place for you!

You can expect in the meetups:

- Networking
Bring your business cards and hand sanitizer. We'll be shaking hands, meeting and networking with other Mailchimp users in our city.
- Presentation
Here's where we'll get educated. You will hear from your Mailchimp Meetup Host on topics ranging from digital marketing, Mailchimp best practices, marketing automation, and more!
- Q + A
You have questions? We have answers! Bring something to take notes because we'll be opening up our Meetup for discussion following the presentation.

Hosted by Markitors
